

BOURNE GRAMMAR SCHOOL BULLETIN

Week ending Friday 13 March 2020
From Jonathan Maddox, Headteacher

ANNOUNCEMENT FROM THE CHAIRMAN OF GOVERNORS

I am delighted to announce that the Governors have appointed Mr Alastair Anderson to succeed Jonathan Maddox as our next Headteacher. Mr Anderson is currently Deputy Head of Wellington School, Somerset. Mr Anderson was selected following an extremely rigorous three-day selection process involving a Selection Panel of Governors and an external advisor. A very wide range of groups within the School, including the Head Students, interviewed the shortlisted candidates.

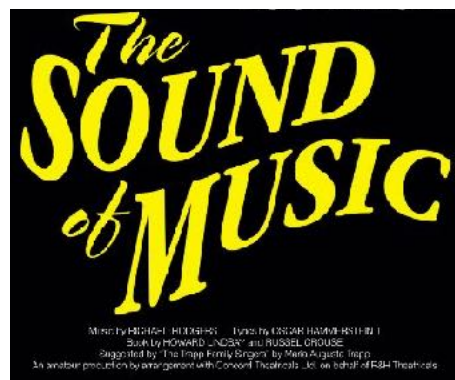

I am confident that Mr Anderson will be an excellent match for our School and will build on the sixteen years of progress under the present Headteacher. Mr Anderson will take over as Headteacher on 1 January 2021.

I am grateful to all those members of the School community who supported me throughout the selection process, particularly over the last few days.

On accepting the post Mr Anderson said "I feel privileged to be offered the Headship of this historic and high-performing school. I look forward to working with all the staff, students, parents and governors as the School moves confidently into the future."

WORLD BOOK DAY BOOK SWAP - Mrs Clark, Literacy Co-ordinator

World Book Day took place on Thursday 5 March and to mark the occasion students and staff were invited to participate in a book swap. Students and staff bought in an impressive variety of genres and authors and over 400 books were exchanged at the event. The literacy prefects (Sophie Bannister, Parie Desai, Daisy Rushen, Gemma Parker, Samar Damani and Keera Adamson) did an excellent job of enthusing our younger students and helping them choose their next book.

The Reading Challenge will continue to run until June; I would encourage all of our students in Years 7 and 8 to participate.
