Lovesong (2011)

Based on T. S Elliot's poem 'The Love Song of J. Alfred Prufrock', Lovesong focuses on an older couple who are struggling to come to terms with illness. As they enter a crucial week in their lives, their house becomes filled with memories of each other. We see the younger versions of themselves within their memories.

From the beginning until 22 mins

• Sketch and label the set for this production

• What projections are used in this section of the play?

• Describe the physical movements that you see in this scene.

• How do the audience know that Maggie and Billy are younger versions of Margaret and William? How do the actors show this in this section?

From 1:00.18 until 1:23.00

• Describe the physical movements that you see within this scene.

• In your opinion, which emotions are being represented by the physical movements?

• How do the audience know that Maggie and Billy are younger versions of Margaret and William? How do the actors show this in this section?

• How is sound used in this play?